PART OF STRUCTURE WORK AT DAM TORN OUT BY HIGH WATER

Government Force at No. 4 Troubled by Seven Foot Stage

FEAR GREATER BREAK IN DAM

Believed Rush of Water if Present Stage Continues Will Cause Sull Greater Trouble—Coal Men Take Advantage of Rise.

Serious damage was done to repair work at Dam No. 4, where there is a 150 foot break, by rising water in the Monongahela river during Friday night. The third crib which has not been securely anchored was torn from its moorings. Some of the pilings which had been driven were also torn loose, and such damage done as to cause grave fears on the part of the engineers and government men that still more of the dam would be washed out, which would mean much greater trouble.

The rising water did somebody good, however, for it permitted coal companies to get out their tows. This morning there is seven feet of water on the upper side at the lock and good-sized tows of coal are passing down the river.

Also water companies of towns along the valley have been able to resume pumping from the river, with the result that they have been enabled to put in a reserve supply in their reservoirs. The Tri Cities Water company started pumping water into the reservoir as soon as possible, with the result that there is now more than seven feet of water there for reserve.

The river was reported still to be rising this morning, but it cannot go much higher because of the wide break in the dam. Both the Slack-water and the Swan, government boats this morning were engaged in preventing further damage at the lock.

WIRELESS MEN PROPOSE TO EQUIP ONE TRUCK

Will Install Apparatus if Truck is Obtainable. Proposing to Donate Equipment to Charleroi Volunteer Regiment

A movement is on foot by local radio men to present to the Charleroi volunteer regiment or some other military unit, as deemed advisable, an up-to-date truck wireless system for use in field operations. The radio experts expect to furnish the wireless apparatus and to install it if a Ford truck is furnished for the purpose, together with the motor generator.

Since the closing of their wireless stations, local wireless operations have become rather restless and have hit upon the radio plan of volunteer army service. They find that wars are not decided finally by guns and shells but by the proper use of modern wireless and finding apparatus.

The local radio men are offering the equipment and their knowledge of the work as their part of the service in combatting the common enemy, hoping that a proper sort of a truck be donated. They propose to equip the truck with apparatus having a sending range of 15 miles in

STEAMER HAZEL WATSON SINKS BUT IS SOON SURFACED AGAIN

Boat Used in Towing Work in Fourth Pool Experiences Trouble When it Strikes Sand Bar.

The steamboat, Hazel Watson, owned by the Crossan Construction company which sank under the railroad bridge at West Brownsville Thursday morning was surfaced later. This small boat is towing cargoes of empty barges and loads through dam No. 4 while the river is low. This boat only draws four feet of water. While making the trip Thursday morning from Charleroi to Lock No. 5 the boat hit a sand bar at West Brownsville Junction and sank in five feet of water. Barges were placed along side the stranded boat and the water pumped out, surfacing the boat again. The Crossan Construction company will continue to tow barges while dam No. 4 is being repaired.

MAN KILLED BY ELECTRIC CAR

Elmer Chaddock, Mate on Steamer Titan, Walks in Front of Car

LONGSHOREMEN ARE NOTIFIED

Elmer Chaddock, aged about 50, mate of towboat Titan of the Jones & Laughlin company, was so badly hurt that he died soon after when struck by an outbound Pittsburgh-Charleroi car at Beechwood Friday night at 11 o'clock.

With another man Chaddock was standing on the tracks when the car approached. One moved to one side of the track and the other to the opposite side. Then Chaddock started across it is said, to be struck by the car. He was taken to the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, where he soon died. Deputy Coroner L. B. Frye was notified and will make disposition of the body.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

On account of the dam at Lock No. 4 breaking it has lowered the river to such an extent as to almost prevent the operation of our pumps. However we are able to operate our pumps at present, but not to their fullest capacity. In order for us to insure the domestic consumers service it became necessary to shut off all industrial consumers. We respectfully urge upon all consumers to be as saving with water as possible until we are able to install special equipment to meet this unusual condition.

WHARF PLANS ARE HEARTILY APPROVED

Council in Adjourned Session Takes up Improvement Idea—United States Engineers Offer Their Assistance

Hearty approval of the plan to build a wharf was given by council Friday night at an adjourned meeting, and the real estate committee was instructed to continue its investigations into methods of building and costs. The committee reported through Councilman Van Voorhis that a visit had been made to the proposed location at the foot of Second street, and that U.S. Engineers had been approached to give data as to a harbor line. Some of the data asked for already has been supplied. Every assistance will be given by the government if it was stated in building the wharf. Two paving petitions were received. One was for the paving of lookout avenue from Fourth street to Fifth. The petition was accepted and the ordinance for the improvement passed first reading, being ordered printed.

Special Music to be Rendered and Commemorative Sermons Preached

ELABORATE PROGRAMS READY

Story of Risen Christ to be Related in Appropriate Song—New Spring Millinery to be Out in Force if Weather is Promising

Events of the Resurrection will be celebrated in Charleroi churches tomorrow, where special commemorative services will be held. Music will be a special feature and appropriate Easter day sermons will be preached from the various pulpits.

Though coming a little later than last year the day will mark all the same the beginning of the spring from a millinery viewpoint. Only the weather may prove a drawback, for the best that the weather bureau has to offer in the way of prediction is rain and warmer.

Elaborate programs have been prepared for Sunday morning and evening. Passion week has been a conspicuous week in the churches and Easter day will come as a climax. At St. Jerome's Catholic church and St. Mary's Episcopal church services were held this morning. Six Protestant churches will join in a service tonight at the First Christian church.

Following is a complete Sunday program at each church:

Episcopal. St. Mary's church, Lookout avenue and Sixth street. Services for Easter day as follows: Holy communion 8:30. Children's service 9:45. Morning prayer and holy communion with sermon 11. Evening prayer 7:30. The Ladies Auxiliary meets Thursday 2:30. Guild Thursday 7:45. Girls Friendly Society Saturday 2:30. In the Easter day services at 11 o'clock the music will consist of the following: Processional, "Come Ye Faithful." "Christ Our Passover," Reade. Te Deum, Foster. Jubilate, Aldrich. "Angels, Roll the Rock Away." Kyril Eleison, Eyrie. Gloria Tibi, King. Gradual. "Jesus Christ is Risen Today." Offertory, Gilbert. Sursum Corda. Sanctus. Benedictus Qui Venit—Morley. Agnus Dei, Gilbert. Gloria in Excelsis, Old Chant. Nine Dimittis, Vincent. Recessional, "The Strife is Over."

First Christian. Fallowfield avenue near Sixth street. Easter services: Bible school at 9:45. In contest with the Knoxville-Pittsburgh Bible school. Contract begins today. Lord's supper and preaching at 10:50. Subject, "The Empty Tomb." Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30. Subject, "The Significance of Easter." Evening worship at 7:30. Evangelistic service. Subject, "When to Seek God." Special Easter music. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30. All strangers to our city and those without a church home are cordially invited to the services of our downtown church. Rev. E. N. Duty, pastor.

SERIOUS CRIME.

This week two Coal Centre men were hauled before the bars of justice to face charges of illegally selling meat from a diseased animal. Their case simply was turned over to the court, where it may be depended upon authorities will properly see to it that justice is done.

The men were butchers. They are said to have purchased a cow, ostensibly to get the hide. They acquired the animal, according to the testimony of one in position to know, with the understanding that they were not to use the meat, the animal having a cancerous growth. The allegation is that they contrary to agreement and law, did sell it from their counter.

It is for the blotting out of such reprehensible practices that the state department of health maintains a zealous activity. How far the effects of business of this sort would extend can only be guessed, but health and lives of those who ate therefrom were endangered. The two accused meat dealers were aliens. Whether they knew the law matters not, since ignorance excuses no man. If they are guilty, they should be made to realize the enormity of their crime.

THE DIE IS CAST

The die has been cast. Upon President Wilson affixing his signature to the bill of congress Friday afternoon war formally was declared upon Germany. All America knew it was coming and America was prepared for the worst.

No man knows what the entrance of the United States into the fearful struggle will mean. The balance of power is against Germany, and all indications point to a sudden end of imperialism and militarism as the ruling factors in the progress of middle Europe.

It is important that the conflict be brief. There has been enough slaughter on the battle fields of Europe; enough money has been wasted in the process. But when peace comes it should be of an everlasting nature, shearing the autocracy of power, and placing in the hands of the masses the rights which should be theirs. For the German people, who have been suffering and who must continue to suffer, there is every friendly regard, but for the autocratic government that has assumed so much at such great expense to the civilized world, there can be nothing but enmity.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

ANCIENT HISTORY IN MODERN WAR.

Ancient history should be a very live subject today. The war has entered the remote East and has sent back to us the names of ancient cities and lands and peoples which hitherto have seemed only memories of a dead past. A modern war is being fought in the picturesque lands where civilization began.

The British have taken the city of Gaza, the mighty gates of which Samson carried away on his shoulders. Christian armies are marching on Jerusalem and restoring Palestine to the Christian world. The twentieth century crusade is not called forth by the sentimental reasons that stirred Richard the Lion Heart in the Middle Ages. Today the British are after food supplies that are of great importance to the Turks; they need the important military headquarters at Jerusalem; they intend to remove forever from Egypt the menace of Turkish invasion.

So, too, the Dardanelles campaign reopened to the student the heroic deeds of the Arabian Knights. The city of Constantinople was recently captured by a British fleet. The Arabs and Egyptians have been at the forefront of centuries. They have been the modern world. The archaeological research has shown the true Mohammedans have retained their love of the old. The modern world has been encamped on the ruins of the Garden of Eden. The Russians are fighting around Mount Ararat, where Noah's Ark came to rest. There have been battles near Mount Sinai.

The geography and history of the ancient world are stirring with the struggle of today. A European war has rent them to life and given the picturesque lands of which they tell a fresh interest and significance. —East Liverpool Review.

DEATH CHAIR IS PASSING

The medieval plan of trying to cure crime by other crimes is doomed in Pennsylvania. Capital punishment of men and women charged with murder is virtually a thing of the past in this state. The state senate has been quick to recognize the strength of public sentiment on this question. It is to be commended for the action it took in passing the anti-death penalty measure by a large majority. As quickly as possible the lower branch of the legislature should consider the action of the senate and send the bill on its way to the executive office. The governor is already committed in behalf of life imprisonment for murderers. Pennsylvania will have marked another milestone of real progress when all forms of capital punishment have been abolished and public sentiment is insistent upon the change without delay. —Charlottesville Leader.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A girl in Camden, who had recently figured in a romantic runaway match, was after her return home, telling her dearest friend all about it. The latter interrupted with this question:

"When you eloped with Louis did you leave a note telling your folks where you had gone?"

"Why, of course," said the wife. "If I hadn't, how on earth would papa have known where to send us any money?"

Now, it wasn't then that the editor went to church, but the other Sunday night, just to please his wife, he went.

In the middle of the sermon, however, she was astonished to see him snatch up his hat and hurry away.

Calling a taxi, he bowled along to his office and found his staff lounging about waiting for instructions.

"Hi, you fellows," he cried, "What are you hanging about like this for? Why aren't you out on the big story? If this sort of thing goes on I shall discharge the lot of you."

"Big story? What big story?"

"Why, I've just heard it! Our vicar's got the gist of it. Hustle, now, quick and get out a special on it. The Egyptian army was crossing the Red Sea, and the whole bunch were drowned."

PITTSBURG PIRATES READY FOR OPENER

Manager Callahan Preparing to Greet
Chicago Cubs at Forbes Field April
19—Pitching Staff Strong.

Baseball again is in the air, and already the crack of the bat and the raucous cry of the umpire is heard in the land. Thursday, April 19 is the date of the opener at Pittsburgh and this year the Pirates will meet the Chicago Cubs in the curtain raiser at Forbes Field. This will be the first time the Cubs have opened in Pittsburgh since Barney Dreyfus took charge of the club, which dates back to 1900. Always it has been Cincinnati or St. Louis that pried the lid off at Forbes Field, but this year the Windy City delegation is to assist in that ceremony.

Besides the usual opening day features, including the band concert, Manager Callahan promises to display what he considers the most peppery team Pittsburgh has had for more than a decade.

Youth must be served is an old adage that has worn well through all the annals of sport, and it is upon this foundation that President Dreyfus and Manager Callahan are building their present Pirate baseball machine. The owner of the Buccaneers has been in the baseball business now for more than thirty years—it has been his life work—and he is accredited with being one of the wisest men in the business, and he holds that there is only one way to get a real pennant winning baseball machine, and that is to build it. And that is exactly what he and Manager Callahan are doing.

They began last year, and already they have a pitching and catching staff that will stand comparison with any in either of the two big leagues. With Marmann, Miller, Cooper, Jacobs, Grimes and Evans on the mound and Fischer, Wagner, Schmidt and Shaw behind the bat, certainly the Pirates need take their hats off to none as to those departments, and all are young men, just coming into their prime as baseball players.

The outfield, too, is causing Manager Callahan no worry, as he has a host of excellent material for the outer gardens; and in the infield, while the problem seems greatest there, the hustling Bucco manager claims he will have an infield of young, fighting ball players that will make many a rival sit up and take notice during the coming season. The opening game Thursday the 19th, will begin at 3 o'clock and the club will continue its plan of filling out-of-town orders by mail. Tickets for the opening game can already be secured in this manner. Reserve seats $1.00, box seats $1.25. Address orders to Pittsburgh Baseball club, 916

Among the special guests who will attend the opening, will be members of the Pittsburgh, Butler, and Franklin Stove leagues.

LOUIS F. BAKER DIES, AGED 89, IN CALIFORNIA

Louis F. Baker, one of the best known residents of the river section of the county, died at his home in California Friday night at 11:30 o'clock after an illness of several weeks. He was in his 89th year. Mr. Baker for many years lived in West Pike Run township, where he was a successful farmer. The last few years he had made his home in California. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. He was twice married, his second wife surviving.

He leaves the following sons by his first wife: Assemblyman G. P. Baker of Washington, former Clerk of Courts C. E. Baker of Washington, Frank Baker of California, John Baker of Clairton, William Baker of Indianapolis and H. B. Baker of Pittsburgh. A number of grandchildren also are living.

Funeral services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church at Clairton Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment will be in the Taylor cemetery.

CANONSBURG BEATS CHARLEROI AND TIES FOR THE COUNTY CUP

Not playing up to true form and missing the services of Stahlman, Charleroi high school's basketball team lost to Canonsburg on the home floor Friday night and helped Canonsburg to tie with Washington for first place in the county league. The score was 37 to 27.

The Canonsburg lineup consisted of Brown and four others, but chiefly Brown. He was the individual and collective star, if an individual could be a collective star. He did all the Canonsburg scoring but two points and some say those two points by Hardy in a field goal were accidental.

Charleroi used another new lineup, starting Riva and Parent at forward, Weaver at center and Capt. Fiedler and Eagye at guards. Later numerous changes were made and the team generally shifted. Two much fouling was a hindrance. Capt. Fiedler led in the scoring. Eagye played a star game at guard. However the contest was marred by a sort of indifference that came as a natural consequence to the final conflict that meant nothing either way in the county contest. Had midseason form been shown by the Charleroi lads they would have rushed the Canonsburgers off their feet. Such seemed the opinion of the rather small crowd of fans.

Some opportunity was taken by Coach Wagner to test the material he will have available for next year. Weaver showed up brilliantly. Pollock was there with the goods. Eagye has been mentioned. Parent and Riva on forward played excellently against their heavier opponents. Manon evidenced form of marked improvement from the beginning of the season, showing the sort of guard he may be expected to develop into. Glunt who got into the fracas for a short while made no spectacular plays, but he demonstrated he had intent ability. Lineup:

Charleroi—27 Canonsburg—37
Riva F Brown
Parent F Campbell
Weaver C Grier
Fiedler G Luke
Eagye G Hardy
Substitutions—Pollock for Riva, Weaver for Pollock, Pollock for Weaver, Fiedler for Weaver, Manon for Fiedler, Glunt for Parent. Field goals—Brown 10, Hardy, Riva, Parent, Fiedler 3, Pollock 2. Foul goals—Brown 17 of 25. Fiedler 13 of 21. Referee—Steytler. Timekeeper—Carl.

AN EASTER SONG

By SUSAN COOLIDGE.

A song of sunshine through the rain,
Of spring across the snow,
A balm to heal the hearts of pain,
A peace surpassing woe.
Lift up your heads, ye sorrowing ones,
And be ye glad of heart,
For Calvary and Easter day,
Earth's saddest day and gladdest day,
Were just one day apart.

With shudder and despair and loss
The world's deep heart was wrung,
As lifted high upon His cross
The Lord of Glory hung.
When rocks were rent, ghosts forms
Stole forth in street and mart;
But Calvary and Easter day,
Earth's blackest day and whitest day,
Were just one day apart.

Oh, when the strife of tongues is loud,
And the heart of hope beats low,
When the prophets prophesy of ill,
And the mourners come and go.
In this sure thought let us abide,
And keep and stay our heart—
That Calvary and Easter day,
Earth's heaviest day and happiest day,
Were but one day apart.

Are You Ready For The

Easter Parade

Easter Styles FOR MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN Are at BERRYMAN'S En Force

The Spring season is reaching its greatest development of fashions—the story of the styles is told in its entirety so far as Spring apparel is concerned—and it now remains to select the models in time for Easter.

The series of fashions now on display in each section has been gathered and arranged to meet the approval of discriminating dressers—for people who desire style correctness and style distinction in every part of their costuming.

Our Easter showing of new wear for every member of the family was never more complete. Suits, coats, dresses, millinery, evening wear, undermuslins—everything for women; suits, topcoats, hats, neckwear, shirts, hosiery and underwear for men, and new wear for little boys and girls as well, are all here in profusion. Come in today and make your Easter selections.

Your Easter Suit and Coat, Madam

Surely you are going to get one, so why not come here today and select it? You'll find here the largest collection in the town and every garment from a thoroughly dependent maker.

The strictly tailored suit is very much the vogue and individualized tailors in smart mannish suits are collected here in great variety for the satisfactory selection of the style informed. The correct style features are expertly carried out and will bear the closest inspection for the tailoring character; the narrow shoulders, close fitting sleeves, soft fronts and fine lines of collars and lapels will be appreciated.

Coats for Spring and Summer are indispensable this year. That is why designers are paying so much attention to them—creating designs in greater variety, along lines that best suit the present modes of dresses.

Our showing includes scores and scores of the newest and best styles of the season.

And the Little Girls, too

Of course the little girl will want new Easter clothes too. Surprise and delight her with a beautiful little frock in some dainty new style. Select it from our comprehensive collection and you may be sure it is a "good buy."

Berryman's

Men's Suits and Spring Coats

When we men buy an "Easter" suit or topcoat we want not only a garment that looks well enough to wear on Easter day but that will continue to look good day after day and week after week. Now-a-days it's no easy matter to select such a suit. Many makers who have adhered to an all wool policy in the past have lowered their standards in proportion to the rise in the price of wool.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN FRUSTRATED

Trackwalker of M. & W. Branch Discovers Two Men Placing Ties on Track and Chases Them—Then he Flags Midnight Train

An attempt was made it is said by two men who as yet have not been apprehended, to wreck the Marianna "hammer" running out from Monongahela at 1 o'clock this morning. They were discovered at work by Tony Maitazoni, track walker on the M. & W. branch, and engaged in a running revolver fight with him. Upon chasing them he discovered ties had been tied to the tracks, so running ahead half mile or more he flagged the train. No trace of the two men could be found by the train crew.
